

Today in Math History...

-27 August 1859

Commercially productive oil discovered. The first commercially productive oil was found at Titusville, Pennsylvania.

From a depth of 69 and one-half feet it produced 400 gallons per day. This was the first proof of oil in reservoirs beneath the Earth's surface.