

CAMDEN, SOUTH CAROLINA

THE BATTLE OF CAMDEN

Initial Dispositions and Movements,
16 August, 1780

0 1/4 1/2
SCALE OF MILES

47

NOTE: A meeting engagement. Cornwallis attacked with his right flank, stampeding the American militia and cavalry. The Continentals in reserve advanced to restore the line but were outflanked and defeated. Meanwhile the American right drove back the British left until in flank and rear by the converging British infantry and cavalry. Few escaped.

