

Today in Math History...

-19 November 1954

The first automatic toll collector was placed in service at the Union Toll Plaza on the Garden State Parkway of New Jersey.

Now many vehicles are equipped with E-ZPass, an electronic toll collection system that allows vehicles equipped with a compact E-ZPass tag mounted on the windshield the ability to drive through designated toll lanes without the need to stop and manually pay a toll.