

Today in Math History...

-27 October 1904

The New York subway opened.

The original subway was built from City Hall to the Bronx with the first part opening in October 1904; an extension to Atlantic Avenue in Brooklyn was built soon after.

1924 map of the New York subway.