

150E Lee Road
West Point, NY 10996
808-753-4621
andy.brosnan@us.army.mil

---

Andrew P. Brosnan

---

- Education     Harvard University, Kennedy School of Government, Cambridge, MA
Masters in Public Policy, International Security and Political Economy concentration, 2008
- University of Virginia, McIntire School of Commerce, Charlottesville, VA
Bachelors of Science in Commerce, Marketing and Management concentration, 1998
- Leadership Experience     Instructor, United States Army, July 08 – present
United States Military Academy, Department of Social Sciences
Teach International Relations to 120 United States Military Academy cadets. Prepare future Army leaders to analyze complex situations from a variety of theoretical perspectives. Develop cadet's critical thinking, writing, analysis, and speaking skills through classroom discussion, presentations, group work, and evaluation of an extensive research project.
- Company Commander, United States Army, Aug 05 – June 06
Headquarters and Headquarters Company, Special Troops Battalion, 25th Infantry Division (Light)
Commanded a 191-man Headquarters Company. Responsible for the morale and welfare of soldiers and their families and the maintenance of over three million dollars of equipment. Organized, trained and led unit from its inception to its Aug 06 deployment to Iraq.
- Company Commander, United States Army, Feb 04 – Aug 05
A Company, 2nd Battalion, 5th Infantry Regiment, 25th Infantry Division (Light)
Commanded a 129-man Light Infantry Company deployed for a year to the Oruzgun Province of Afghanistan in support of Operation Enduring Freedom. Interacted regularly with Afghan government officials, the Afghan National Army, the United States Agency for International Development, the United Nations Office for Project Services, State Department representatives, and non-governmental agencies to improve the security and stability of Afghanistan. Enabled the first ever Afghanistan democratic elections through actively participating in planning sessions with the Joint Election Management Body, and through instructing and augmenting Afghan National Army soldiers in the protection of polling sites. Met weekly with local Shura members to mediate tribal conflicts and encourage growth of a democratic society. Implemented over $800,000 in Commanders Emergency Relief Program funds in two Afghanistan districts. Established a youth sports league comprised of ten schools from Afghanistan's Khas Oruzgun District. See www.freewebs.com/kusports. Awarded the Bronze Star for meritorious service.
- Ranger Rifle Platoon Leader, United States Army, Jan 01 – Aug 02
2nd Platoon, A Company, 1st Battalion, 75th Ranger Regiment
Led 42 U.S. Army Rangers in 100 days of combat operations in Afghanistan in support of Operation Enduring Freedom. Responsible for deploying troops to reinforce Special Operations units within one hour of notification. Awarded the Bronze Star for meritorious service.
- Rifle Platoon Leader, United States Army, Dec 00 – Jan 01
1st Platoon, A Company, 1st Battalion, 8th Infantry Regiment, 4th Infantry Division (Mechanized)
Led a 32-man mechanized rifle platoon and accounted for over two million dollars of equipment.
- Personal     Reared in a military family of six children. Married to Jean Brosnan of Nashville, Tennessee and together have two children. Active member of the Episcopal Church and avid outdoorsman.